The Many Faces of Ageism

Ageism is in many ways the other “ism” that we often forget about, yet subtly, find ourselves perpetuating. Negative attitudes toward aging have been deep seeded into our global history. Dr. Robert N. Butler was the first to coin the term ageism to speak to the negative attitudes on aging. This workshop will dissect ageism and the subtle forms that we often see in our profession. Not only will we examine how the world views aging adults, but we will also dive into how seniors view themselves and the psychology of aging. This session will be highly interactive with case studies and role-play to help attendees understand the aging population. Attendees will leave with the takeaway tools necessary to be more sensitive and attuned to our interactions with older adults.

Agenda:

5:15 pm – 6:00 pm:	Registration, Complimentary Dinner, & Welcome
6:00 - 7:00 pm:	Presentation
7:00 pm:	Evaluations and Adjourn
