Lunch & Learn: Managing Anxiety

Thursday, June 27, 2024

11:00am

Anxiety can lead to a poor quality of life and raise your risk of heart disease, diabetes, substance abuse, and depression. Join us for lunch as our nurse practitioner, Stephen Franks, teaches us about different types of anxiety and treatment options. You do not have to be a current patient to attend, new friends are welcome. There is no cost to participate; lunch will be provided so please RSVP. Don't miss out on this valuable session!
