

Caregiving During The Holidays

Candace Taylor

Do you have a loved one living with Alzheimer's or Dementia? Candace Taylor, with the SC Alzheimer's Association will join us to lead an educational, interactive discussion on how to best prepare for the holiday season.

The goal of the program is:

- Learn about Alzheimer's disease and dementia
- Provide care for yourself & your loved one during the holidays
- Remain flexible & educate family and friends about the disease, holiday safety, & sensitivity

Tuesday, November 12
