

Nursing and Social Work: Tracing the Path from Past to Present with Dr. Jill Zinkgraf

A Free One-Hour Educational Webinar and CEU Credit

Join us for an engaging webinar presented by Comfort Keepers, where we'll dive into the fascinating origins and early history of nursing and social work. Dr. Zinckgraf will walk us through key milestones and introduce us to influential figures in both fields. We'll explore how care has evolved through significant events like wars, social reform movements, and public health crises. You'll also learn about the common goals and shared efforts between nurses and social workers, especially in supporting vulnerable populations. Plus, Dr. Zinckgraf will share inspiring examples of how these two professions have successfully worked together. Don't miss this chance to gain a richer understanding of the history and collaboration in care professions!
